Wilson is also my ggg grandfather (through Horatio Britton). I am also looking for info regarding his first marriage, which I understand was in Winchester, Va. I found through Eve or Eva Britton through the internet that his first wife may have been Susannah Young. They had a daughter named Eve or Eva.

"I do have a will of Hosea Britton executed by his brother, Benjamin, in the year 1823. After that, there is no mention of Rachel anywhere. I do have information on the rest of the brittons of franklin County, Ohio." The above quote on the Britton GenForum (10/99) caught my attention. You had posted a followup to it on 11/99. I am a descendant of Rev. Benjamin Britton and had not found a record connecting him with anyone other relatives. I have the descendants of his son Benjamin. It is the son (b. 1797) who married Elizabeth Brunk. I think that it is the Rev. Benjamin who is the brother of Hosea. John Lomax Hosea Britton b.abt.1780 married Rachel Taylor in Monongalia Co. Va about 1800. Hosea had a brother, Wilson Britton. Wilson Britton had a grand daughter, Lucy A. Britton b.1848 in Monongalia Co. VA Lucy married James B. Taylor who was the son of James Taylor. Lucy and James B. Taylor Jr. had a son named Marion C. Taylor b.1874 in Doddridge Co. WV Hosea Britton and Rachel Taylor had a son named Samuel Taylor Britton who married Mariah Lattimer/Lathmer. Samuel named one of his sons Marion C. Britton b.1862 in Ohio. I would like to know if anyone has anything on Rachel Taylor? Is she related to James Taylor Sr.? Thanks Julie sierrastarts@excite.com

Hosea Britton was Benjamin's Brother. They traveled together from Monongahela, West Virginia into Ohio. Wilson Britton,there brother, stayed on in WV. The two brothers settled in Hilliard, Ohio (Franklin Co). Benjamin only had one wife(Elizabeth Grace). Both are buried in Wesley Cemetary, Hilliard, Ohio. Hosea's Will was executed by his brother Benjamin onOctober 30, 1822. Still no information on Rachel {Taylor} Britton to this date.

Posted by: Kathy Knoch Date: January 12, 2001 Looking for info on Hosea Britton b. abt 1780. I have scant info on him, if its right. He's the father of (Nancy)Mary Britton b.1807 Oh., d.1835 Oh., she married Wm. Childs. Another daughter, Elizabeth, married a John Groom in 1824. Supposedly Hosea married a Tamson Groom 9-8-1831. Would like to know if info correct, know the parents of Hosea, & who the mother of Mary & Elizabeth was. Any help appreciated.

The following is from the History Of Franklin And Pickaway Counties (Ohio): "The first settlers in what is now [1880] known as Norwich Twsp. were Daniel Brunk and family, who settled half a mile south of the Hayden run, in 1807. Rev. Benjamin Britton settled on land, next south of Brunk, at the same time. He was a Christian, "New Light" preacher and early organized a church of that denomination. Members of the church, afterwards joined with the congregation at Dublin." This is believed to be the father of Benjamin Britton (1797-1868) based on Ben Jr's. marriage (when almost 19) To Elizabeth Brunk (aged 15½) in 1816 in Franklin Co. and the proximity of the two families as indicated in the county history. Rev. Benjamin and Elizabeth may have had the following children, but proof via original records has not been obtained: Elizabeth, John, Matilda, James, and Noah. They had four children in Ohio, and moved to Indiana in 1824, and from there to Sangamon Co., Ill., arriving in Oct., 1825, in what is now Cotton Hill township, where they had seven children." It was remembered that "Benjamin Britton hired Nathaniel Duncan to haul a load of corn to Springfield, which would be a day's work for a team. The price agreed upon was $1.37 1/2. Twenty bushels was all he could haul. Mr. Britton went along to do his own selling. Arriving there, with all his efforts, five cents per bushel was the highest price he could obtain. He sold the load, laid over the whole proceeds, $1.00, but how they settled the other thirty-seven and a half cents, he does not remember. That was in 1836." Nellie was a homemaker, a staunch member of the Methodist Church and a sincere Christian. She never had a bad word to say about anyone. When Ben died, most of his assets were in stock in the local bank. When it failed in 1930, Nellie had to help refund money to depositors and was left penniless (but managed to convey the home to her daughter Edna). During the depression she helped make a large garden each year and canned all of the vegetables and fruit needed to feed herself and Edna and the boarders, William and John Lomax, and later, Hallie Johns, for the rest of the year. A coal-burning cook-stove was used to heat water (pumped from a cistern) for all washing and bathing. Even when there was little food in the house, she always fed a hobo who stopped and asked, and let them do a little work in return (they always volunteered). She greatly enjoyed baking and decorating fancy cakes. Nellie was a kind and gentle woman who was a devoted wife and mother and who raised one grandchild. After Edna died, she was sorely tried when she had to keep house for John James. She died as the result of a heart attack.

His two-column obituary is partially quoted: "... Mr. Britton has been in the employ of E.A. Vandever, deceased, and Major W.T. Vandever, since coming to Taylorville in 1891, later becoming cashier of the Vandever Bank. At the death of E.A. Vandever he was chosen to manage the numerous farm properties of Mr. Vandever's heirs. He was always prominent in the Methodist church of this city, taking an active part in all of the church's work. He was superintendent of the Sunday school, holding that office for the last twelve years. Mr. Britton was a deacon of the church and a member of the building committee. For many years Mr. Britton was honored by the presidency of the district school boards and was a member of the Taylorville library board at the time of his death. He served years ago as deputy under Sheriff H.W. Johnson. He was a member of the Hyperion lodge I.O.O.F. Amprehel encampment and the Rebekah lodge. Mr. Britton was born in 1860 near Clarksdale, receiving his education in a nearby country school, later teaching near Palmer and Stonington. ....

In the death of Ben Britton, Taylorville loses a most valuable citizen. Always good-natured, and charitable in his judgement of others he had made and held thousands of friends, who were shocked by his untimely death. He was all that could be desired in a city -- he was progressive, always on the right side of all public questions. .... He was a high type of man and his place in the community cannot be filled." Death certificate #8215, reg. # 37 shows cause of death: "angina pectoris (attacks for 2 years); secondary: arterio sclerosis".

"I attended St. James Catholic Elementary School in St. Louis, was graduated in 1935 with a scholarship to Ursuline Academy in Kirkwood. I was graduated from Ursuline in 1939 with scholarships to Webster College and Marquette University, neither of which I was able to accept because of financial restraints. At that time there was no such thing as a student loan, nor even high school counselors to guide and encourage. I had taken some commercial classes during my high school years and was able to secure a secretarial position with New England Mutual Life Insurance Co., where I worked until the outbreak of World War II at which time I went to work at National Bearing Division of American Brake Shoe Co. While employed there I attended night classes in philosophy at St. Louis University for two years. I did not pursue a degree and have regretted it ever since. The only other college courses I have taken were the three Art classes I took a few years ago. My mother saw to it that I had violin and piano lessons for a time in grade school, and I resumed the piano lessons after I began working. I stayed at Brake Shoe, moving up over the years from secretary to Priorities Administrator to secretary to the Division President. About six months after his first wife's death, Howard invited me out for dinner. We were married May 3, 1958 and had three girls. After Howard's death in 1966 (in Akron Ohio to which he had been transferred), I moved "home" and have been here at this address ever since. The children were 3, 4 and 5 when Howard died. I stayed home with them until Sally was 9 or 10 at which time I began working at my present office, which afforded me the flexibility in hours I needed to continue caring for the children, car pooling to get them back and forth to Ursuline, etc., and being home when they got home from school. I'm still in the same office. At age 65 I learned to operate a computer and enough accounting to handle the payroll and accounts payable for the school and church, about 45 employees. ...

With a business college education my dad worked for the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad; then the Frisco Railroad, as a telegrapher, until the depression. After that he worked as a public transportation motorman until he retired. He was reared in Quincy, Ill. ... I have no facts about[my mother's parents] origins but seem to remember hearing about Kentucky as a child. My mother was reared in Iberia, Mo., the daughter of a carpenter." [1/16/1994]
