Emanuel Hermanus Clapper b. Abt 1750 Of Clappertown, Blair, Pa (now Barbara, Huston Twp., Blair Co., PA.)

d. 1815 or BET 26 DEC 1803 AND 23 JAN 1804 in Huntingdon, Huntingdon Co., PA

The spelling of Herman may appear as Harmon, Manus, and in an Article of Agreement found in Huntingdon Co. courthouse his name is spelled in the latin form of Hermanus. Herman Clapper, married Catherine ??? while living in Washington Co. MD From the Washington Co. deeds I found in Book B, 419, dated Nov. 28, 1780 that Harman Clapper, Washinton Co., farmer, and wife, Catherine sold to Rev. George YOUNG of Elizabethtown, for 425 pounds, all that tract on which Harman Clapper now lives, known as "Nazareth", formerly the property of Joseph WOLLAMOTT, deceased, 100 acres. This must have been when Herman and his wife, Catherine sold out and moved to PA. In the U.S. census of 1790 Harmon Clapper is listed in Huntingdon Co. PA as having 1 male under 16, and 2 females. In an Article of agreement, Will Book 1, Vol. M, Page 131, dated Ced 26, 1803, Hermanus and Catherine Clapper mention the following children; 1. Mary, who died June 28, 1791, married Anthony BEAVER, his first marriage, 2. Susanna (died Sep. 24 1849, married Anthony BEAVER, his second marriage 3. Daniel, who married Catherine LOWER; 4. Henry; 5. John; 6. Jacob, who married Lucinda ???; 7. George, whom married first a MOYER, and his 2nd marriage was to Matilda FOUSE; and 8. Catherine, who married Frederick HERRING. In the Article of Agreement Herman states that his land on Piney Creek, now in Blair Co. PA, was conveyed to him by John BRUMBAUGH containing 110 acres and 18 perches. Letters of Administration were granted to Ludwig Clapper, his brother, and Jacob BRUMBAUGH on the Herman Clapper estate on Jan. 23, 1804, so Herman must have died between Dec. 26, 1803 and Jan. 23, 1804. Mr STEWART in his history gives Herman's name as Emanuel. This is because probably he saw the name written as Manus somewhere and thought it was short name for Emanuel. This was all in one paragraph so that is how I copied it. I find a number of differences between these 2 pages and "the Clappers in America" information. I plan to try to find this article the next time I go to Altoona PA maybe next Spring. My husband and I have been searching various family members of his and mine so have visited a number of PA libraries. We often come home and find something we "missed" in the papers we have copied and wish we could see that "report" or "book" again. per Carol Hurley <carrus@cable.net-VA.com>

married Mary Metzker (4 children)

Ludwig Clapper, who emigrated from Germany with Emanuel married Mary Metzker in 1794. Henry Clapper, his son, born 1795. Mary his daughter was born in 1807 and Christena born in 1810. Henry married Eva Hartle. Their children were Mary wife of Samuel Rhodes born in 1814, Frances wife of George Shingler, born in ----- this line is illegible, Elizabeth wife of Adam Bower John born in 1821?, Nancy wife of John Smith born in 1824; Susan wife of Mason Howard born in 1827; and Eva wife of William Stiffler, was born in 1832. She is the only one living and at the age of 83 years. She is the mother of John, William and James, deceased, and Martha at home unmarried. John Clapper was married to Mary Brumbaugh and lived on his farm at Clappertown until his death. His wife survives him and is 89 years of age. She lives near Martinsburg. Their children were Jacob, Archie, John, Maggie, wife of George Hagey, with whom the aged mother lives; Celia, wife of Elliot Johnson and Elizabeth, wife of Martin Fornwalt. The family record of Henry Clapper is recorded in a German Bible printed 130 years ago. We were shown a grandfathers clock that has ticked off time for more than 120 years and is still ticking, also a book of Psalms printed in German language in 1779. These relics can be seen in the home of William Stiffler, Altoona, Pa. We regret that we have not history of Henry Clapper's other children and are indebted to Mr. Stiffler for a family name with which is connected so much of interest and so long lived. This history was written by Lorenzo D. Stewart for the second annual reunion of the Clapper family held in Dell Delights Park August 27, 1915.

(Now I have written this as it is printed in the little leaflet that was sent to me. It has been 12 years since this was written and I suppose many are not living any more that was alive at that time. Our Aunt Susan at Mulberry, Ind. is one that is gone and she had three brothers who died in infancy that were not mentioned in this history). Aunt Malinda Jane Clapper Burr) Rensseleer(sp?), Ind. Following the history of Jacob Clapper, we will speak of his son George Clapper, who died of cancer in the face. In an old German Bible possession of John Clapper of Lower Reese Station is recorded the following wedding notice; May the thirteenth, 1823, George Clapper and Catherine Fornwalt, were married at the house of George Fay, before the Justice of Peace, William Spear, near Williamsburg. To this union were born Isaac, Daniel, George, Adolphus, John, James, David, Mary, Elizabeth and Susana, all of whom are dead excepting John Clapper of Lower Reese Station, now 80 years old and having lived all his life in Frankstown

Township.

Daniel Clapper the oldest son of Emanuel was a bound boy for eleven years to one Brumbaugh living near Hagerstown, Md. On reaching his majority he came to Piney Creek to the farm known now as the Wolf farm. At this early time the country was a wilderness. The said Mr. Brumbaugh formerly owned this farm and during Daniel's bondage he threatened to run away when Brumbaugh promised him that if he would stay his time he would give him this farm. In the mean time, Brumbaugh sold the farm to Daniel's father, who moved on it. When Daniel was free he came to claim his property when he was told that his father had bought it. Daniel married Catherine Lower of Williamsburg and settled in Canoe Valley on a farm now owned by Charles Ross. To this union were born Henry (grandfather of Sherman, Linda, Ira, Louis and Harriett), Adam, Jacob, Daniel, George, Emanuel, Catherine, Elisabeth, Sarah, Mary, Margaret and Susan, all having lived their three score and ten years excepting Adam. A German Bible 170 years old in which is recorded the family record is in the possession of one of the family.

Daniel Clapper with his family of 12 children moved from Canoe Valley to Carson Valley in 1827, where his sons Jacob, George, and Emanuel lived for 70 continuous years and died there and were buried in the Carson Valley Cemetery by the side of their parents. The Carson Valley farm being divided, George, living on the one part and the bachelor brother, Jacob, lived with Emanuel on the other part. Daniel had 69? Grandchildren. His progeny extends the length and breadth of our country even to California. The writer is a great-great grandson of the first Emanuel Clapper who landed in Baltimore harbor in 1765.
