The information for the ancestry of Elsie Leona (Daisy) Hickman, for example, is accurate in the birth and death dates for her and her husband, and the names of her siblings. But the birth dates of her siblings and not accurate, and Millard Fillmore Hickman is repeated as Phio Hickman. The name Phio is a typographical error for his nickname Phil. The family of Matson Riley, father of Hannah Riley Hickman has similar issues. The fault is not necessarily that of the LDS, but those who supplied the data.

- (25) The late Dr. John Charles Butler of the University of Houston has a goodly amount of information about the Dyes. A lively and on-going discussion concerning the Dyes may be found at <http://listserv.uh.edu/archives/thedyesociety.html>. Dr. Butler, who died October 24, 2001, was born October 31, 1941 in Port Clinton, Ohio. There is an obituary posted for him in the November 2001 archives at the latter website.

(26) A Matson Riley family tree is under construction. Considerable research on the Rileys has been done by Leonard William Riley III of Oregon while on leave from the Peace Corps.

(27) Information on Virgil and Florence Wogan Magill was supplied by John D. Kille of Reno NV (e-mail jdkrnv@aol.com). Emma Moore (j.darr@adelphia.net or jimandemmamae@yahoo.com) found the marriage record at Chillicothe, Ohio.

(28) A photograph of the Robert Matson Hickman family contributed by Cleyone Nichols (see note 22) may be found at <http://members.aol.com/dovelion/hickman/hckprob.htm>. The identities of the adults are certain. Hannah Riley Hickman is pictured at the left in the front row and Delilah Beatty Larrabee is at the far right. It is possible that the picture was taken in 1893, but I think the picture is from mid-April 1896, but the identities of the younger children are in question. For example, the child on Robert's lap is supposed to be Nora Hickman who died in 1896, and the baby on Jane's lap is supposed to be Howard (born 1904), but that is impossible timewise. If the picture was taken 1896, then the baby is probably Bobby, i.e., Robert Matson Hickman Jr., who was born 1896. The child at the left in the back row is supposed to be Elsie and the child at the far right is supposed to be Roma, but I believe their identities are reversed.

29) Charles Weese has online a plat map depicting the location of the farms owned by the "Heirs of Z. Hickman" in 1875 is at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~ohjackso/images/1875jacksontwp-detailed-w.gif>. The farm is near the notch in the northwest corner of the map (western Jackson Township) and the latter is at the bottom of the map near present day Limerick, Ohio. Hickman Cemetery is adjacent to the Hickman farm at the southeastern edge of the property owned by Pleasant Springer. Other families mentioned herein (e.g., Leaches, Rileys, Magills, Larrabees, Beattys, McLaughlins) may be found on this or adjacent maps. Some of my Beatty relatives who joined the Limerick RLDS may be found online. I am not an RLDS member. My Hickmans, if anything, were Baptists. My father was basically an atheist.

(30) Rick Brown (rbrown@bright.net) supplied considerable information on the Beattys.

31) Teresa McLaughlin supplied much information about Rebecca Hickman, daughter of John Hickman and Canzada Fought. The birth dates vary about a year from those derived from the 1850 census for the family. (However, be aware that censuses are not necessarily accurate, especially if the information was given by a neighbor. For example, in the 1870 census, dates for our Hickman family in Jackson County, Ohio have the right names except maybe for the mother, but the wrong ages. Hannah Riley Hickman is there called Mary, which may or may not be correct.) In what Teresa has, Rebecca is called Mary Ann Rebecca Hickman and Canzada Fought is called Ingaby Canzada Fought. In 1860 John and Canzada's children, Abraham, Elizabeth, and Fernando, are found with Elias Hickman and his spinster sisters, Rebecca and Elizabeth. Old John died in 1857 and the location of the others afterward is a mystery at this writing. There is certainly much that we do not know about our ancestors, and I have only provided here a skeleton outline. For further information about the Joseph Stanley family contact Teresa whose current (2002) e-mail address is prissy@raex.com. She has a superb write-up on that family, certainly in greater detail than we have room for here. She has the Joseph Stanley family Bible.

32) Data on Gould Leach Harris was provided by Ginger Strong-Tidman (ginger@mooresymons.com). My father said he was a superintendent of schools at Westerville, Ohio. Ginger writes on 23 Jan 2002: "Gould Leach Harris graduated from Ohio State with both bachelors and masters, taught accounting at New York University until his retirement at age 65, then taught at Fairleigh Dickinson University and Florida Atlantic University until the age of 75. He co-authored two accounting textbooks, for which he earned the princely sum of $52."

33) Laura Erwin (lerwin@tampabay.rr.com), whose husband is the grandson of Alice Hickman Markham, provided some information about the children of Ernest Zachariah (Jack) Hickman and Maggie Terry, whose brother married Jack's sister, Violet. Samuel Kight the father of my mother's stepfather married Bethiah Terry. Frank Davis (frank2n2@comcast.net) has a Terry and Boring website with pictures of Jack and Violet Hickman and their spouses:
<http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Ranch/3773/>.

The obituary of Allan Clare Hickman was found in the Columbus Dispatch and may be found online among the obituaries posted at www.scioto.org for Jackson County. Obituaries for Maribelle Drennen, John David Hickman, Verda Littlejohn Hickman were found in Waverly newspapers. Barry Cunningham's obituary was found in the Chillicothe Gazette.

Bonnie Martin Dozer (bkdozer@hotmail.com) (daughter of Cliff Martin and Myrtle Terry) also contributed some information about the Terrys. Her aunt was the late Dorothy L. Martin Hickman, widow of Darrell William Hickman. See obituary of Harlan Martin, Dorothy and Cliff Martin's father, online at <http://www.scioto.org/Jackson/obits/M-P/notices-mp.html>. Darrell and Dorothy's obituaries are at <http://www.scioto.org/Jackson/obits/G-L/notices-gl.html>. Harlan Martin's father, Will Henry Martin, was also married to Samantha Leach, a daughter of Thomas Leach and Mary Ann Skinner. Will Henry was married at least three times. Fidella Newel was the first, Samantha Leach was the second, and Mary E. Richards was the third wife. William Henry Martin was also called William Henry Boyer, because he was raised by his aunt Sarah Martin and her husband, Abraham Boyer.

34) Data on the descendants of Albert Hickman and Sarah Catherine Johnson were provided by Margaret Jean Poage Hickman (e-mail: jrh193@iland.net)

35) Data on family of John Hickman and Catherine Murray was provided from an e-mail from Addie Hickman relaying an e-mail from Ed Oldaker (OldakerSpitfire@aol.com).

36) Charles Weese who is the webmaster for Rootsweb fo Jackson County, Ohio has a list of surnames from Jackson County at <http://web.raex.com/~cweese/weese/surnames.htm>; He has recently revamped his data, and it is there I found the names of Isaac Gray and Cleo Vance, the daughter of Charles Leach and Hannah Rebecca Hickman.

Notes:

1) Before the Civil War, West Virginia was part of Virginia. West Virginia was admitted to the union by Congress June 20, 1863. Thus such counties as Wood, Wirt, Jackson, Roane and Harrison once were in Virginia and later in West Virginia. I have been inconsistent in differentiating between the divided states.

2) Questionnaires from three of Zachariah Hickman's children (Robert, John, and Caroline) submitted to Willis Guy Tetrick at Colson Hall at West Virginia University in Harrison County, West Virginia were copied by Addie Hickman. These questionnaires point to February 1813 (the 6th or 8th) for Zachariah's birth-date whereas the tombstone for Zachariah Hickman in Hickman Cemetery in Jackson Township, Jackson County, Ohio, extrapolates to April 6, 1812 (died March 6, 1866 aged 53 yrs 11 mos). The birth-date given by Caroline Hickman Leach for herself conflicts with those dates given by her brothers and also with the censuses and is in no way reconcilable. In that case, I took the date recorded in the 1900 census which was compatible with her tombstone. See enclosed supplement on this subject. Similar issues exist for Hannah Rebecca Hickman Leach. Her death certificate gives her birth date as 12 Feb 1861 (informant was Earl D. Leach). The 1900 census gave her birth as Feb 1860 and the earlier censuses imply her birth date was in 1859: She is 1 in 1860, 11 in 1870, 21 in 1880. Robert M. Hickman gives her birth date as 12-11-1859. .

3) <http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com/users/s/h/e/Franklin-D-Shepherd/GENE18-0005.html>, part of an FTM site devoted to the Descendants of Christopher Nutter mentions Jeremiah/Gary Hickman and Bathsheba Nutter.* In Wirt County WV, a Gary Hickman was married to a Bathsheba and he has been thought to have been a son of Elias Hickman and Charity Tucker. I rather think Gary or Jerry or Jeremiah belonged to Elias' brother, Zachariah Hickman and his wife Mary (Molly) Peck, daughter of Samuel Peck of Harrison County, VA (source 19). Molly's brother, Abner Peck, married Comfort Hickman, daughter of Sotha Hickman. With the Bradens and Foughts marrying into the different Hickman families, Gary is related by marriage if not a brother or cousin.

4) Data about persons currently alive and their families have been limited for the sake of privacy. In most cases it can reasonably be presumed the person is dead, but the death date was unavailable. If anyone has any further information about the people included here, we would appreciate hearing from you.

5) There may be other researchers who supplied me with information, but whom I have inadvertently and regrettably omitted.

6) There is a brief mention of Sotha Hickman at <http://duskcamp.itgo.com/Hickman.htm> but the only son listed is Arthur. A description of Sotha's birth and his military career and his and Levi Douglass' capture by the Indians may be found at <http://members.aol.com/NutterWV1/doc0056.htm>. Similar ground is covered at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~indian/hickmans.htm> in an excerpt from Col. Haymond's History of Harrison County, West Virginia. There is reportedly a monument to him in front of the Harrison County Courthouse at Clarksburg.

7) The vernacular of the people of southeastern Ohio was to pronounce any name ending in "-a" as though it were a "y". Thus Roma was pronounced Romy. This practice has dropped mostly out of use. My father's name Jesse he preferred to pronounce Jess.

8) We generally have no control over the accuracy of e-mail addresses given herein. People are free to change e-mail addresses or Internet Service Providers at will. Even Gordon Magill who has had his material posted on America Online is migrating his material (November 2002) to his own domain name.

We have tried to be as accurate as possible, but, as King Solomon wrote in Proverbs 10:19, "In the multitude of words, there lacks not sin (or error)."

Levi was a pioneer on the well-known "Nutter Farm". Thomas went to Athens Ohio. John removed to (Richardsonville) now Richardson, Calhoun Co. WV. John settled in Harrison Co. around 1770. From Chronicles of Border Warfare by Withers: "Settled on the Elk and in the vicinity of Clarksburg near to the Forge Mills...on the West Fork at the place now owned by Adam Hickman Jr." Dennis Nicklas: John and his brothers, Issac, Levi, Thomas and William came to Ritchie Co. Va. about 1813 and squatted near the mouth of Addis Run on land owned by a Mr. Addis. This land was sold to William McKinley, who dispossessed the Nutter in 1818. John and Mary then moved to the West Fork of the Little Kanawha River in present day Calhoun Co., W.V.

Brief History of the Hickman family

The father of Elias Hickman, famed Indian fighter, Sotha Hickman, was born on the shore of Maryland in 1748. He migrated to Monongalia/Harrison County, (West) Virginia in the fall of 1771 and lived at Nutter's Fort. He was reportedly in the Battle of Point Pleasant (1774) and was in the Revolutionary War as a scout under Captain William Lowther. His son, Elias Hickman, married Charity Tucker in Harrison County, Virginia in 1803. Charity was a daughter of Samuel Tucker and Rebecca York. Samuel died in 1806 and Rebecca remarried a Benjamin Braskett and migrated to Ohio. Elias and Charity had migrated to Wood County, (West) Virginia by 1810 where Elias is found in the 1810 census; his family is the only one with the Hickman name. (Elias' will was probated in May 1816, and a son, Elias Hickman, was born presumably early in 1817.)

Old Elias is gone by the 1820 census where instead Charity Hickman is found, and she is listed there through the 1840 census. Two new Hickman families belonging to Arthur (firstborn son of Sotha) and an Elisha Hickman are found in the 1830 census in Wood County. Arthur is gone in 1840 and John and William Hickman, sons of Charity and Elias, are found in 1840. By 1850 Charity is gone and Elias (with two spinster sisters), William, and Zacharia Hickman are found in Wood County. (West) Virginia. Our Hickmans lived in the Walker area of Wood County. My father remembered the older Hickmans mentioning Murphytown and Kanawha Station. Wirt County was split out from Wood County in 1848 and Elisha and John are to be found there in 1850. Elisha Hickman (relation to our Hickmans is unknown) fought in the Civil War for the Confederacy and some of his sons fought for the Union.

Zachariah Hickman and his family (including newborn Robert Matson Hickman) are listed in Wood County in the 1850 and 1860 censuses. Zachariah Hickman had married Hannah Riley, daughter of Matson Riley and Mary Dye. The Dyes or Deys were from New York and were of Dutch stock. Matson Riley was of Irish stock was born in Prince William County, Virginia, and lived in Loudoun County, until he moved to Wood County, (West) Virginia before 1810. Some of the Rileys had moved early in the 1800s to Ross County, Ohio, while some moved later, even some who were not obviously related. Joseph and Matson Riley are in Wood County in 1810. Only Matson Riley is there in 1820; brother Joseph has probably gone to Ohio. Matson and his son Joshua Riley are there in 1830. In 1840 we have Matson and his sons, John and Joshua, and a William Riley. Matson Riley's first wife died about 1840 and he remarried the widow Jane Farrow. In 1850 we have Matson (Amos his son and family is with him) and also we have another son David, and William Reily. This William Riley (wife Elizabeth Griffin) will migrate to Ross County Ohio by 1870, and two sons (James and Cincinnatus) will marry two sisters named Sheets; a daughter Marietta will marry a James Barr (1860 census) and also move to Ross County, Ohio by 1870. One son John died in West Virginia. There was a Silas Reily in Wirt County in 1850 and he was presumably related. Many Rileys and their spouses will move to Ohio with the Hickmans.

The Civil War broke out and at one point some soldiers (confederates?) raided the Zachariah Hickman farm in West Virginia and pursued the livestock and the chickens. Young Elias had to be restrained from going out after the soldiers. The reason the Hickmans left West Virginia was the fear of "bushwhackers". Others had migrated to Jackson County, Ohio, and Zach Hickman had taken out an option on some property owned by a Joseph Meeker (they pronounced the name Micker) in Jackson Township, Jackson County, Ohio. This Joseph Meeker was evidently the son of the original land-owner who had been granted a deed in the time of James Monroe. (I once had the deed, but someone stole it probably to sell on the antiques market in 1986.) Young Elias was killed in West Virginia by a log rolling over on him, probably in late 1863. Word came from someone that Meeker was selling off his property, so by March 1864 or possibly 1865, the rest of the family came to Ohio. The women and children came by the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad from Kanawha Station in Wood County, West Virginia, to West Junction in Ross County (north of the Ross/Vinton/Jackson County border) about five miles away from the new home. (West Junction is so-called because there is a spur from the old B&O there over to the old C&O (Chesapeake and Ohio) line at Richmond Dale. The C&O and B&O merged into the Chessie System.) Zach and the older boys and Pete and Phil Riley brought the furniture and other belonging by wagons and oxen. A dog tried to follow them, but some boys threw rocks at him, so it went back home. A couple years later Zach Hickman, who was a big man, died after eating a big dinner. A couple years later Matson Riley (Hannah Hickman's dad), who had come over to Ohio from West Virginia, died. Matson's son George Riley and his family lived near Limerick. Zach, Matson, and George and many Hickmans and several Rileys (and their spouses) are buried in Hickman Cemetery.

Hannah Riley Hickman is to be found in the 1870 census as Mary Hickman, and the ages of the children are not accurate. Remarkably, Mary H. Riley is the name given her on the death certificate for her daughter, Hannah Rebecca Hickman Leach by her son Earl D. Leach (Doug). The children married and set up families. An man named Frederick Foughty warned Zach Hickman not to let his kids marry into the Leaches, a prosperous and prolific family of those parts. As it turned out after Zach's death, many of them did marry Leaches. (When Foughty died (he is buried in Hickman Cemetery), Thomas Leach (a "squire" or justice of the peace) remarked on his death certificate that Foughty was "crazy", so it is probable these two "crossed swords".) At some point, Hannah moved from the main house into a smaller but adjacent house built for her, while Robert Matson Hickman and wife and children were in the main house, which was expanded with the addition of a couple rooms. By the 1880 census John Dye Hickman has a house of his own nearby and George Riley Hickman has moved elsewhere in the township.

The 1880 census also lists a twelve year-old mulatto boy named Johnny Napper staying with the Hickmans. Johnny had been found by the Hickmans out in the old apple orchard, and he was taken in. Johnny is with George and Samantha Leach Hickman in the 1900 census. My father said that Johnny had a daughter (Doris) by Samantha Leach Hickman, and this is confirmed by the statement filed by George Hickman with W. Guy Tetrick, where the child is listed with the surname of Napper. (Of course, none of this type of thing is ever the fault of the poor child.) Delilah Jane Hickman was the midwife at the time, and Samantha wanted a quick look at the child when she was born. In the 1900 census, Robert Matson Hickman has a large family, but Hannah is mysteriously missing. Hannah Riley Hickman died a couple years later, and her house was torn down to make a "cellar house", which is a house or building over a concrete cellar. The property was split between Robert and John Hickman. The other children as they matured tended to move away.

The Hickmans visited those Larrabees who had moved away to Illinois before 1920. Robert Hickman and son Bobby also visited West Virginia in the 1920s, and they took pictures of the people and places they visited. They took pictures of where Robert M. was born, Barney Campbell and family, Kanawha Station, etc. Robert M. stayed at the home of James Hickman, who raised sheep. This James Hickman seems to be a son of John Cain Hickman who migrated from Harrison County to Wood County before 1870. James and his wife, Nancy Buckner, are buried at Kanawha Baptist Church Cemetery at Leachtown, Wood County WV. John Cain Hickman's wife was Francena Benson. These Hickmans are from a collateral line. At the end of 1926, Robert M. received a letter from Lydia Campbell Friend telling about her mother's death. The same cemetery has a listing for a Lydia Friend Porto, as well as one for Ardith Lucille Friend, daughter of Lydia Campbell Friend. At one point, Herb and Maud Albright took Robert M. and Jane on a trip to Florida.

My father was born to Nellie Hickman and Andy Magill in 1906, but her parents refused to give their blessing to the marriage, so it was three years before Nellie and Andy married. My father was raised by Robert and Delilah Jane Hickman and so is found with them in the 1910 census as Jess Magill. Nellie and Andy are to be found in Chillicothe in the 1910 census. Andy died of the Spanish flu. My father was raised by his grandparents as Jesse Hickman, and so he was known all his adult life. Phil Hickman shot himself upstairs in the old house in 1911 and my father remembered the sound of the gun. Phil, as some of the young Hickmans of that time were (e.g., Jack, Harry, and Grace), was bad to drink. He had been divorced from Lena Christman, and George Woods, a buddy of his, had been killed by someone on a covered bridge over in West Virginia. Phil was despondent, and Jane (his mother) was worried about him. Jane died in 1930 of a cerebral hemorrhage, and there was a big article in the Jackson newspaper. Robert M. shot himself in 1937 (shortly after his 87th birthday) after sending my father and mother off to Jackson to pay the taxes. Darrell Hickman said that Robert M. had said he was not going to be a burden to anyone in his old age. My father had married and, according to Marshall French, a school-chum of my father's, the first born child (Leona) was a "blue baby", so she had serious problems. A considerable number of Nellie's offspring also had serious health problems. I have two children, an autistic son and a very normal and bright daughter.

Misfortune also followed the John Dye Hickman line. John had gotten the daughter of a neighbor pregnant, and the Hickmans wanted John to marry Nell White. (Such things are of course not the fault of the child.) The 1880 census shows a Charles Hickman with Charles White (an Englishman) and wife Jennie. Charles married Vera Coy, the daughter of Walter Coy and Julia Fouty and the granddaughter of Frederick Foughty. John was holding out for marrying Martha Leach, and the Hickmans argued that there was not that much difference between women. Anyway, John married Martha, and three of the children turned out to be drinkers. (John died of prostate cancer. Robert M. Hickman called John "Dan'I".) Grace and Harry died relatively young in their 40s. Harry married an Ethel Ross and they had one son, Glendon. Harry was trapping for fur in Salt Creek, when he collapsed and died in the creek. My father remembered Glendon wailing for his father. At the time of the 1930 census, Ethel and Glendon were living with her brother-in-law, Thurman Greene, who ran a store (Green's Store) on Old Route 35, five miles NW of Jackson. Afterward Ethel married an Eugene Lewis, who was raised near Leo. Sometime after Eugene Lewis died, Ethel moved to the state of Washington, where she died. Her name is on Harry's and Eugene's tombstone, but she is buried neither in Hickman Cemetery nor Evergreen Cemetery near Leo. My father and I saw Ethel once when she visited Hickman cemetery in old age. She said she wasn't going to be buried there) The farm came to Harry's brother Jack who also too drank much. My father was not particularly fond of alcohol or the way Jack acted when he was drunk.

Jack sold the John Hickman farm and moved to Jackson. In 1944-1945 a Tom Hall briefly lived there, and he had a daughter named Virginia, but they moved to Jackson. (At that time Ben and Inez Moore lived at the "Springer place" and after them Leonard and Ethel Salyers and their family lived there.) A very friendly black man, Ernest Ragland whom I remember fondly, and wife Goldie lived there awhile until he bought the Henry Christman farm about 1952. Jack died one November night in 1951, when a cab driver brought him out drunk from Jackson, and my father turned him away. He turned off the lights (we had coal oil lamps in those days and no electricity from the REA until 1953), and we went to bed. The cab stopped out at the cemetery and the cabbie let him out. Jack passed out in a stupor and died overnight in the cold night air due to "overexposure". My father found him in the morning where he had collapsed and called the authorities. Jack's family blamed my father for turning him away that night. However, people who heavily indulge in alcohol seem to have a death wish. There was good reason for the prohibition for alcohol in the 1920s. Unfortunately, prohibition caused more problems than it solved. One of John's children, Violet, who my father called the "best in the bunch," lived to be over 100 years old and died not long after my father. The John Dye Hickman farm was sold to Hoyt Woods (Hoyt may have rented to Ernest Ragland; he was brother to Zelma Woods who married Frank French) and then to Glenn B. May, who had moved in from Kentucky with his wife Helen (nee Mattingly), a school-teacher. Glenn and Helen had three boys, Gary, Howard Wendell, and Dale. Glenn built a new house and a large barn (the latter with a government loan) and tore down the old John Hickman house. Glenn died of brain cancer in October 1974 and was buried in Kentucky next to his father, Fred May. Helen May, at this writing (July 2003), still owns the John Hickman property.

Robert Matson Hickman, according to his obituary, "was a carpenter, blacksmith and farmer, also township treasurer, president of the school board, and president of the telephone company, rendering valuable service to the community for many long years. His faithfulness, honesty and capability will long be remembered and he was loved by all who knew him." My father said that Robert M. sent him and my mother off to Jackson to pay the property taxes on the farm. When they returned from town they found that he had shot himself out in the wagon shed. The newspaper for January 26, 1937 stated "Relatives stated that he had been worrying a great deal about his health, fearing also that he might become blind. This is believed to have caused his action." (Jackson Sun-Journal, January 26, 1937). Two surviving siblings were George Riley Hickman (who lived in Westerville, Ohio) and Hannah Leach of Chillicothe, Ohio. The obituary said that Robert M. came to Ohio when he was 15 years old, which could point to 1865 as the year of the Hickman migration,

After Robert M. died in 1937, his farm was quit-claim deeded by Robert's other children (who had moved far away) to my parents. Maud Albright was the executor of the estate. After my mother died of a late childbirth in June 1941, my older sister was taken away by the courts by 1943, and she died in 1961 at Cambridge State Hospital. I was raised on the Hickman farm, but had to move away to find work in the 1960s. The old Hickman house burned in January 1973 from a chimney fire, and a small logging shack* was moved in Autumn 1973 onto the property to a spot where the kitchen of the old house was. My father lived on the farm until Christmas 1985, when his shack burned down. My father had suffered a heat stroke in June of 1985, and he came to live with me until he had a stroke in September 1986 and died in October 1986. I still own the farm but have lamentably been unable to properly take care of it. I worked in Columbus, Ohio as a computer programmer for 35 years and retired January 31, 2002

The only Hickmans I know of who are left in Jackson County belong to the George Hickman family; a notable exception until this year (2003) was one of Howard Hickman's sons who was a retired deputy sheriff there. Howard Hickman married Myrta Spriggs, his grade-school teacher. Myrta was from the Spriggs family, a noted family of southern Jackson County. Some of the George Hickman family worked for railroad companies, such as Edgar and Darrell. Pearl Hickman died in 1947 in Fort Worth, Texas after being hit by a train. Darrell had to retire from his railroad job in the 1950s because of emphysema, but he lived to a ripe old age. There are some Hickmans who moved in from Kentucky, but they do not seem to be related. . There are also some Pike County Hickmans who came from Pennsylvania.

* The logging shack was owned by Ray Elam, husband of Frances Weinrich, daughter of Elba Weinrich, son of Lewis Weinrich and Ophelia Leach; after Ophelia's death, Lewis married her younger sister Mary. My father helped Elba Weinrich sell some property by finding a buyer, but had gained no promised remuneration before Elba and wife Ethel Raymond Cooper Weinrich (my first grade teacher in 1945-1946 at Hickman School) died. The shack was in the way of settling the old verbal debt.

** Hoyt Woods (wife Minnie Willis) was brother to Zelma Woods who married Frank (Franklin Alexander) French, son of Abe French (Abraham Augustus French(1864-1952)). Hoyt and Zelma were the offspring of Alexander (Sandy) Wood(s) (1856-1940) and Ellen Landrum (1872-1940), daughter of Montacue Landrum (brother of Elza Landrum) and Susan Hayth. Sandy was son of John Spicer Wood (see the Matson Riley file) and his first wife Mahala Leap.

The Frenches were Hickman neighbors who lived over on Limerick Road. Around 1850 Abraham French (1807-1870) was a merchant in Jackson and operated a stage depot. He married Rachel Ridenhour (1810-1889). Abraham and Rachel retired to the farm in Jackson Township and were buried at Sigler Cemetery in Ross County, Ohio. Their son, Henry Smith French (1832-?), was a stagecoach driver and drove the last run between Chillicothe and Gallipolis. He married Caroline Wood (1832-1914), daughter of Harrison Wood (1802-1877) who donated land for the development of Rio Grande College in Gallia County. Smith and Caroline are buried in the cemetery on Bob Evans Farm near Revolutionary War soldier Adam Rickabaugh (1761-1836), her grandfather. Smith's son Abraham Augustus French ("Abe") owned the old Abraham French farm in my youth. Old Abraham's son Abraham French, Jr. ("June") lived in a corner of that property adjacent to the Hickman farm; June French died in 1944, having been born 1852. Part of the old French property went to Walter McCuiston and his wife Charlotte Slagle ("Lottie"), the daughter of Rome French, Smith French's sister. ( There were Slagles in Gallia County and Henry T. Wickline (my Ike Wickline's oldest brother, 1832-1898) married Mary Slagle (1836-1914) , his first cousin, granddaughter of Revolutionary War soldier Isaac Wiseman (1764-1862); for this, see online at <http://www.naesmyth.com/ft/fam01111.htm> and adjacent areas.) Abe French was married to Chloe Strider (1872-1943), daughter of James Alexander Strider and Nancy Clover Colwill. My father attended Hickman School with Abe French's sons. The Frenches in their old age gravitated to Richmond Dale in Ross County, and many are buried at Little Mound Cemetery there, as were Abe and Chloe French and Sandy and Ellen Landrum Woods. The last surviving son of Abe French was Marshall French (born 30 Aug 1906) who died of Parkinson's Disease in Chillicothe, Ohio on 7 Jun 1997. Another French brother I personally knew was Ralph Strider French (1910-1970), who married Omogene Odell of RichmondDale, who is still alive at this writing (July 2003). Marshall French's daughter, Vivian, married Harold Allen, grandson of Orph Stockman who married Callie Wood of John Spicer Wood's line (see Matson Riley file).

My Maternal Lines:

My mother was Frances Lucille Wickline (18 Sept 1909-11 June 1941) , who was the daughter of James H. Wickline (March 1884-10 Dec 1918 of Spanish flu) and Emma McLaughlin (3 Nov 1883-11 Jul 1941) and the wife of Jesse Banner Hickman (1906-1986), son of Nellie Ora Hickman and Lee Andrew Magill. James H. Wickline was the son of Isaac Charles Wickline (“Ike”, 1841, Gallia County, OH-1920, Pike county, OH) and Eveline Prose (1845-1918), who was Ike’s step-sister as well as his wife. (The name Eveline is misread Emeline.) Ike Wickline was son of David Wickline (11 Jul 1808, Monroe County, WV-2 Aug 1887, Pike County, OH) and Phebe Wiseman (28 May 1807, Monroe County, WV-1851, Gallia County, OH), daughter of Isaac Wiseman (1764-1862), friend of frontiersman Lewis Wetzel when he tangled with General Josiah Harmar (<http://www.rootsweb.com/~indian/genharm.htm>) after killing an Indian friendly to the whites. Eveline Prose was daughter of Daniel Prose, and Mary A. Waddell (alias “Polly Prose”), who after Phebe died, married David Wickline 14 Feb 1852. The Wisemans and Wicklines migrated from Monroe County, (West) Virginia to Gallia County, Ohio, before 1850. The Wicklines migrated from Gallia County, Ohio before 1870 to Pike County, Ohio, where David Wickline ran a sawmill. David Wickline* and “Polly” and my grandfather James are buried at Allen Chapel Cemetery in Beaver Township, Pike County, Ohio. My great-grandparents Isaac and Eveline Prose Wickline are buried at Hay Hollow Cemetery across from the Grandview Church of Christ in Christian Union in Jackson Township, Pike County, Ohio. Phebe Wiseman Wickline is buried in Gallia County, Ohio at a cemetery "Located in Section 21 of Perry township on the east side of Nebo Road opposite the Nebo-Symmes Creek junction at Salem Baptist Church." Frances and Jesse (my parents) are buried in Hickman Cemetery, Jackson County, Ohio. Emma McLaughlin Wickline and second husband John Kight (1867-1949) are buried at Limerick Cemetery in Jackson Township, Jackson County, Ohio.

* His tombstone says “Whickline”; my father said that was the original name, but that information seems to be incorrect.

Sources for my Wickline/Prose/Wiseman/McLaughlin ancestors are online at:

1) <http://www.ameritech.net/users/kitty/McLaughlin.html>, maintained by Margaret Sabisch, lists my McLaughlin ancestors. Daniel McLaughlin (born about 1820 in Pennsylvania according to the 1860 census and died about 1861) married Elizabeth Downard (19 Apr 1820, Carroll County, OH-29 Jan 1901, Jackson County, OH), daughter of James Downard (1789-1865) and Mary Bruce (1790-4 Jul 1886). Their son, Samuel McLaughlin (20 Aug 1848-31 Dec 1915), married on 18 Sept 1873 Mary Catherine Snyder (11 May 1847-16 Jul 1919), daughter of Alexander Snyder (b: 14 Apr 1823, Greenbriar County, (West) Virginia, d: Aug 1903, Ohio) and Martha Sena DeMoss from Taylor County, (West) Virginia. Their daughter, Emma McLaughlin (2 Nov 1883-11 Jul 1941), married on 11 Dec 1906 James H. Wickline (March 1884-10 Dec 1918) who died of the Spanish flu ; Emma then married John W. Kight (1867-1949), son of Samuel Kight and Bethiah Terry. The names McLaughlin and Bruce are obviously of Scottish origin.

The children of Emma McLaughlin and James Wickline were Ottis, Frances (my mother), Luther, and John Wesley. The children of Emma McLaughlin and John Kight were Damon L. Kight, John Gamaliel Kight, and possibly Ralph Kight who died young. Emma died of cancer one month to the day after my mother died from a dangerously late childbirth. My mother I believe was named for a Frances E. Hartley who 14 June 1892 married George Henry Wickline; George was James Wickline’s older brother and was about 16 years older than him. George and Frances had only one son Clarence Wickline in October 1893 and Frances presumably died not long afterward. Clearly this Frances had impressed the young Jim Wickline. The Wicklines are mostly buried in Allen Chapel Cemetery in Beaver Township, Pike County, Ohio. Emma and John Kight are buried at Limerick Cemetery in Jackson Township, Jackson County, Ohio. Ike and Eveline are buried in Hay Hollow Cemetery across from Grandview Church of Christ in Christian Union in Jackson Township, Pike County, Ohio. A few Pennsylvania Hickmans are buried there too. There were earlier George Wicklines. George Lewis Wickline was a blacksmith of some repute and invented the popular Wickline gun. There is a replica of his log cabin on Bob Evans Farm at Rio Grande, Ohio in Gallia County. This George was the son of Jacob Wickline, David Wickline’s older brother.

My uncle, John Wesley Wickline (9 Jul 1911-Jun 1976), had a daughter, Margie (Marjorie E.), who was born 3 Mar 1939; John Wes lived at Yellow Springs, Ohio. Margie married a Donald Pierce and lived in Columbus, Ohio, where she died several years ago (about 10 Nov 1983). Margie had a brother, Kenneth Wickline. My father said John Wes married Dorothy Woods, daughter of Fox Woods. Otis Wickline (1 Mar 1908-11 Jul 1982) married an Irene Roberts and died at his home north of Chillicothe, Ohio. Luther Wickline married Maxine Hickman and moved to Detroit where he died. Damon Kight lives at Springfield, Ohio; he has children, but no grandchildren.

2) <http://www.oblevins.com/OBlevins/D0002/G0000237.html#1525> gives the marriage of Daniel Prose to Mary Waddell and "Emeline Prose" to Isaac Wickline. Eveline is misread as Emeline.

3) <http://www.sonic.net/melvaw/RAINES10.HTM#p1752> has David Wickline's birth under George Washington Wickline and Mary A. Miller, along with his ancestry. The capital letters in this web address are critical. The Wicklines came from Germany to Pennsylvania. Johann Georg Wicklein was born in Pfalz, Germany and migrated to Berks County, Pennsylvania. His son, Jacob W. Wickline, moved to Monroe County, West Virginia. His son, George Washington Wickline was the father of my David Wickline.

4) <http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com/users/a/s/h/Mary-H-Ash/GENE18-0008.html> and following pages. It has the marriage between Daniel Prose Jr. and Mary A. Waddell in Gallia County, Ohio, along with an account of Daniel's death in Durango, Mexico (another version points to Independence, MO in 1849) from a "History of Sullivan County, Indiana". Daniel Prose Jr. however does not seem to be the son of a Daniel Prose. Mary's children (Jacob and Charles Prose) went to Pike County, Ohio with David Wickline, and Charles Prose married in Ross County, Ohio in 1870 an Orpha Acord*, daughter of Mary Ellen Hixson and John Acord according to Robert Mankin (rdmanjr@adelphia.net), a Hixon family researcher. Orpha is listed in the Jefferson Township, Ross County, Ohio census for 1860 as Orpha Eckart. Jacob Alexander Prose migrated to Indiana. Some Wicklines are buried in a cemetery at Rio Grande, Ohio.

5) Mary Waddell, wife of Daniel Prose Jr., was daughter of John Waddell and Mary Wigner according to : . <http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com/users/w/a/d/Kathy-L-Waddell/GENE4-0008.html>. An alternate parentage for Mary Waddell as a daughter of Rebecca Sharp and Alexander Waddell Jr., son of Alexander and Elinor Waddell is given by Kathy Waddell (klwaddell@charter.net) cited in (7).

6) Some Wickline information may be found on the Wickline genforum.

7) Margurette Flack Ratliff (swalnut934@aol.com) of Charleston, West Virginia and Jane Volckmann (jvolckmann@aol.com) of Greensboro, North Carolina have written a huge two volume book on Wickline genealogy published 2002 by Heritage Books of Bowie MD: "Descendants of Jacob George Wickline and Maria Catherine Spahr". Some material concerning me and my ancestors is inaccurate there. Corrections have been made in their Wick-Line Newsletter which is being published quarterly.

* I believe Orpha Acord was first cousin to James Madison Acord Jr. (Sept 1867-6 Jun 1948), father of Floyd Acord, father of the Kermit Acord who married Peggy Sue Hickman. Elaine Tipton (e-mail TIPTON\_E@msn.com) of Pickaway County, Ohio, gave me the parentage of Floyd Acord. Elaine is granddaughter of Cordelia Stevison Trace Christman, wife of Henry Christman who I knew when I was 5 years old. ( I think this Henry was a brother to the Lena Christman who married Millard Fillmore Hickman.) Cordelia's first husband was Martin Frederic Trace, and they were parents of Marguerite Lucille Trace Acord Harris (4 Dec 1902-8 Nov 1966), Elaine's maternal grandmother. Marguerite first married John Wayne Acord and, after his death, James Corbett Harris. Marguerite lived around Omega in Pike County, Ohio. Her half sister, Irene Christman, married Dave Dubois and they lived around Richmond Dale in Ross County, Ohio, where they are buried at Little Mound Cemetery. Cordelia (nicknamed Cordy) was daughter of Lucinda Jane Howe and John Wilson Stevison, son of Ann Wilson and Isaac V. Stevison, a tailor.

Beattys and Larrabees:

Jonathan Larrabee (born 1808, New York, died 1865, Ohio?) married Orilla Snow (24 Aug 1809, Massachusetts-1891, Athens County, Ohio) and they were found in Butler County, Pennsylvania in the 1840 census. By 1850 Jonathan and Orilla are in Lodi Township, Athens County, Ohio. Their known children were Silas, Bathea, Abigail, Susannah, Asaph, Adelia, Jonathan, Nathan, and Orilla. Bathea married William Oard on 21 May 1857. Abigail married Augustus Snow (a cousin) on 6 September 1857. The eldest son Silas Larrabee (18 Nov 1829, Pennsylvania-26 May 1902, Ohio) married Delilah Beatty (22 Jan 1837-5 May 1909) in Gallia County, Ohio on 25 Dec 1854. The children of Silas and Delilah were William, Robert (6 Mar 1861-30 Jun 1934), Margaret, and Mary Etta or Marietta, Cora, and Ralph.

Delilah was the daughter of Elijah Beatty* (3 Feb 1818, Pennsylvania-24 Jan 1884, Athens County, Ohio) and Susannah Headen. According to Rick Brown, Elijah's father, William Beatty, had come from Pennsylvania to Ohio and died in Muskingum County in 1831. Elijah and Susannah were married 11 June 1836 in Morgan County, Ohio, a couple months after his brother Elisha married Louisa Massay on 21 April 1836 (Source: Early Marriages of Morgan County, Ohio). Elijah and Susannah are found in Canaan Township, Athens county in the 1850 census. Their known children were Delilah, Thomas Jefferson, James M., and William E., Enos, and Phebe. The Beattys had moved from Athens County to Gallia County in late 1853 and are to be found in the 1860 census in Morgan Township, Gallia County. Elijah Beatty was an ordained minister of a currently unknown church (RLDS?).

Elijah moved to near Limerick on what is now called Savageville Road in Jackson Township, Jackson County, Ohio in the early 1860s. His brother, Elisha Beatty, is there too in the 1870 census with a wife Rebecca and five children near the homes of Thompson Leach, James Nelson Leach, Jesse Savage, and Allen Savage.** Elisha and Rebecca were found in Troy Township, Athens County, Ohio in the 1860 census with seven children. In 1875 Elisha Beatty owns property up Ervin Hollow, which is the next road going southward south of Savageville Road off of U.S. Route 35. Elisha and family are gone by 1880. Susannah Beatty died 6 Sept 1870 in Jackson County, Ohio and Elijah married Rebecca Huston. Elijah died in January 1882, possibly in Athens County of "spinal disease", which has been interpreted as insanity. Many Beattys today belong to the RLDS (Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints), which was a group which broke off from the Mormons and did not follow Brigham Young. (The RLDS has a small church at Limerick, and their Camp Bountiful south of there on Limerick Road is built on land formerly belonging to Joshua Downard, one of my distant cousins.)

Silas and Delilah Beatty Larrabee also had moved to Jackson County by 1870; they were the parents of Delilah Jane Larrabee who married Robert Matson Hickman. Delilah Beatty Larrabee's brother, Thomas Jefferson Beatty (28 Jun 1841-24 May 1907) and wife Martha Jane Wildman (25 Aug 1843-3 Jun 1932) lived nextdoor to Silas Larrabee and they were the parents of Iva Eloise Beatty, who married William Pleasant Hickman. Another brother, Billy Beatty born 9 Nov 1845, served in the Civil War according to Rick Brown; he was a superb marksman in his outfit (Company B, Ohio Vounteer Infantry); he was killed 18 Nov 1864, before the war was over. A sister, Phebe Beatty, married Alexander Brandon Ervin Jr., and their descendants lived in Jackson County. James M. Beatty (2 Jan 1843-4 Sept 1915) married Sarah Elizabeth Rowland (17 Jun 1852-11 Dec 1921), and they lived in Fairfield County, Ohio.

The young sons of Silas Larrabee migrated to Illinois and settled around Paris and Ashmore. William Worthington Larrabee came to say goodbye to Jane, his sister. After he left he crossed the run and went up the hill and stopped and looked back for a good long time. Then he left and went off to Illinois. William W. Larrabee is known to have married Zora Wacasser in Piatt County, Illinois. At some point in time, Will developed a case of amnesia and went to Canada according to a lost letter to me from his aged daughter, Mrs. Florence Boyd of Ashmore. Eventually, Will regained his memory and returned home to Illinois. His brother, Robert Larrabee also moved to Illinois. Ralph Larrabee, another brother, married Arretha Leach, and they moved to Illinois too after 1910. A newspaper clipping in Daisy Hickman Kohler's scrapbook says that Will Larrabee and many members of his family returned to Jackson County where the family honored him on the 80th birthday (30 Oct 1935) at the home of Samuel and Margaret Martin. At the time Will was residing in Canada; his son Homer Larrabee was living in Regina, Saskatchewan. His daughter, Florence Boyd and her daughter, Jane, were living in Danville, Illinois. Will had been a schooleacher according to the clipping.

Another sister, Cora Larrabee married Pete Woods, son of Joshua Wood(s), and they lived with Delilah until she died. Pete and Cora are found in the 1910 census there in Liberty Township, Jackson County. (My father said that Cora was the daughter of Austin Baileys, a Larrabee neighbor.*** ) Cora ran off to Illinois before 1918 with Lonnie Landrum, both of them deserting their families. Lonnie's wife was Flora Bennington, a devout RLDS member and their children were raised as such.**** I am sure the RLDS belief was a large part of why Lonnie deserted Flora. Lonnie (Alonzo T. Landrum) was the son of Elza Landrum and Mary Ann Finn. As far as I know, Lonnie and Cora had no kids. My father remembered Pete Woods visiting Robert M. Hickman in the old blacksmith shop (the shop collapsed late summer and early fall of 2002) and lamenting the departure of Cora.***** One sister, Margaret Elizabeth Larrabee (1865-1940), married Samuel J. Martin ("Uncle Sam", 1858-1940), son of Andrew Martin and Martha Overly. This family remained in Jackson County. Another sister, Marietta or Mary Etta Larrabee, married Jacob Pancake (son of Harvey Pancake and Abigail Clark) from Pike County, Ohio, and that family moved to Columbus, Ohio. Their three children were Clay, Harry, and Mabel Pancake. One of the Illinois Larrabees, Samuel M. Larrabee from Coles County, fought in World War 2; I would think that he was named for "Uncle Sam Martin". When the Hickmans visited in Illinois in the 1920s, Lulu May Larrabee, beautiful daughter of Ralph Larrabee, showed my father around the town. In the 1910 Census for Jackson Township, Jackson County, Ohio, Lulu Larrabee was 8 and her younger brother Samuel was 3. Samuel would have been 33 in 1940 and therefore eligible for the draft.

Other children of Jonathan Larrabee and Orilla Snow stayed in Athens County. Adelia Larrabee, married William Gabriel, and their son, Billy Gabriel, was a police officer at Nelsonville around 1900. Silas' brother, Nathan Larrabee, (Nate), married a Lydia Cornell; he visited the Hickmans once. Nate came to visit the Hickmans once, and he was given a bed in the downstairs bedroom with young Bobby Hickman. Nate slept with his eyes open, and this fact unnerved the youngster so that he fled the bedroom. Silas Larrabee died in 1902. He suffered from "agar", which is what my father called malaria or ague; Silas would be shivering ("freezing") from the disease in hot weather. He probably caught malaria from the mosquitos near the Scioto River in Pike County. Delilah Beatty Larrabee died in 1909, and the property passed to Pete Woods and Cora. The Larrabee house no longer exists.

* There is another Elijah Beatty who lived in Fayette County, Ohio. His father was Charles Beatty, a Baptist minister, who came to Ohio with his family from Virginia. This Elijah Beatty was married to an Anna Miller. A daughter, Christina Beatty, married Laban H. Loofbourrow, who was of a noted family in Fayette County. These Loofbourrows can be tied into the Pyleys of Ross County, one of whom, William, married Martha Belle Leach, daughter of Fielding Leach. Source: R. Dills, History of Fayette County, p. 959, under Madison Township and the heading of Laban H. Loofbourrow.

**Jesse and Al Savage ran a grocery and from them came the name Savageville. At one time there was a one-room Savageville School, and Jackson Local Elementary School is built near where it was; the election house for Jackson Township is also there. The Savages sold out and moved elsewhere. Zach Hickman had received considerable money for his property in West Virginia. The survivors had no idea what happened to the money after Zach died. Years later, one of the Savages returned briefly to the area for a visit. He was boasting how honest they were and that even Zach Hickman had entrusted them with money for safekeeping. Presumably the boaster had no idea that the money had never been returned to the family. The family did not know where the Savages went, so there was no point of pursuing the matter. (The obituary of Jesse's father-in-law, Joseph Detty, indicates that Jesse and Louisa Savage were in Charleston WV in May 1905.)

***The name is pronounced Bayless, and is spelled in various ways. The patriarch of the Baileys was Wilson Baileys (1787-1876) and his wife was Elizabeth Mulligan (1793-1866). Several of this Baileys/Bailes family came from the Wood/Wirt County area of West Virginia. Austin Baileys (1835-1918) married Reuhama Foutty (1833-1918) in 1856 in Wirt County, and a daughter Susan Bailes/Baileys married Madison Leach, son of Fielding Leach, son of George Leach, here in Ohio. A son, Greenbury Baileys (1868-1927), married Prudence Downard (1869-?), daughter of Marilla Hartley and Joshua Downard, son of James Downard and Mary Bruce. David Snyder sent me a chart showing that "Green Bayless" also married Ethel McLaughlin, daughter of Ellen Snyder and John McLaughlin (son of Daniel McLaughlin and Elizabeth Downard) and that they had a daughter named Zelda Bayless. G. B. and Prudence Baileys are buried in Limerick Cemetery. Charles Bailess (1820-1902) married Florilla Crawford (1823-1905), sister of the John Watson Crawford who married Mary Elizabeth Hickman, daughter of Gary Hickman; another sister, Lydia A. Crawford married George Washington Braden, whose brother Silas married Elizabeth Belle Braden, daughter of John Hickman and Canzada Fought.

Ann Bayles (older sister of Austin Baileys) married James W. Rockenbaugh who owned the current McMann farm north of Limerick in the 1870s. One daughter Mary C. (1845-13 May 1898) was married to David Duhl (1844-?) and lived nearby. Another daughter, Martha Rockenbaugh, married James Felix Leach, son of Lewis Leach (1793-1876) and Sarah Mackenzie-Ward (1804-1885). A son, Calvenia Rockenbaugh (26 Aug 1847-5 Dec 1925), married Rachel McLaughlin (12 Jul 1856-16 Apr 1925), daughter of Daniel McLaughlin and Elizabeth Downard, my ancestors; Calvenia and Rachel moved to Franklin County, Ohio and are buried in City of Dublin Cemetery at Dublin OH. A son of James and Ann Bailes Rockenbaugh, George Rockenbaugh, married Harriet Parks and they had Arthur Rockenbaugh in 1883.

Gloria Keller Quinroz (ourfamily@scrserv.com) found the mention of an earlier George Rockenbaugh in Hardesty's History of Wirt County he was notable since he was the first blacksmith and built the first hewed log house in Wirt County (<http://www.rootsweb.com/~wvwirt/hardesty/page24.htm>);. James Rockenbaugh was a son of this George Rockenbaugh of Wirt County, WV.

**** Ruth White, the wife of Syla Landrum (Lonnie's son), was my teacher from the third grade through the seventh grade, 1946-1951, at which time all the one-roomed schools in Jackson County, Ohio were eliminated and consolidated. This included Hickman School, which was built across the run on Hickman property. The Hickman School building was sold and moved away to a place where it burned down; the land was sold to my father, who later found he did not have to redeem it since it legally would have reverted to him anyway. The consolidated Jackson Local Elementary School, near where Savageville Road meets U.S. Route 35, began operations in October 1951 with Ernest Kingery as principal. Fifty years later, the building is regarded as out-dated and obsolete, but funds are unavailable for reconstruction. In the 1800s Jackson County was booming with steel and coal and salt, but these days the county has budgetary problems. Syla Esco Landrum was a son of Flora Bennington and Alonzo T. Landrum. Lonnie was the son of Mary Finn and Elza Lindrum, the son of Julia Acord and Elza Landrum who had another son Monticue Landrum (wife Susan Hayth) who had a daughter Ellen Landrum who married Sandy Wood.

***** The father of Pete Wood(s) was Joshua Wood (24 Dec 1810, Meigs County, OH-27 Jan 1887, Jackson County, OH), who second wife was Emmarillis Kight (1830-?). The possible relationship of Joshua Wood to John Spicer Wood is discussed in the Matson Riley file.

This is Addie here and I am reviewing subject family sheet and would like some input and help as usual!

Family Sheet completed by John Hickman of Richmond Dale, WVA & submitted to W. Guy Tetrick and I found at - WV University, Coe Hall, Harrison Co., WVA date unknown

John says his post office address was Richmond Dale, WVA - or least I think it is WVA. He says he was born August 30, 1853 and his wife's name is Martha Leach Hickman. (I had a different year) He says they were married (I am most certain) Nov 10, 1878. Took me a while to figure out Nov

He lists his children as
Grace Hickman
Zachariah Hickman
Violet Hickman
Harry Hickman

He lists his brothers and sisters as: (Children of Zachariah and Hannah Rebecca Riley)
Caroline
Charity
Robert
George
Rebecca

In addition to these I have
Elias (this is the one that I have was killed by a log rolling over on him)
Jane

He lists his father's, Zachariah Hickman brothers and sisters as: Zachariah born 2-6-1813 -- I had 4-16-1812 - but guess he ought to know better than what I have.

William
John
Elizabeth
Rebecca
Elias

I have in addition:
Gary
Melissa

He gives his grandfather's name as Elias Hickman and Charity Tucker Hickman.

I will certainly appreciate anything you can help me with to make sure I record things with accuracy. Do you have anything to add or correct on this information?
God Bless each of you, Addie here

Dean Hickman contributed this outline. Please email Dean (DeanHickmn@aol.com) if you have questions, comments, or additions. I believe this is a fair representation of this family but it should only be considered a guide for further research.

- (3) Inscriptions from Hickman Cemetery, Jackson Township, Jackson County, Ohio as well as Union Cemetery, Columbus, Ohio.

- (5) Birth and Death Records from Jackson and Liberty Townships, Jackson County, Ohio
- (6) Invaluable e-mails from Camille Ammerman, researcher in genealogy for West Virginia located in Manitoba. She supplied much data for the West Virginia Hickmans.
- (7) E-mails from Addie Hickman, researcher of the Hickmans and allied families.
- (8) Ancestry.com SSN Death Index at <http://www.ancestry.com/ssdi/advanced.htm>
- (9) A website I use as a guideline but not necessarily as gospel is the LDS online website "Family Search Site," <http://www.familysearch.org/>. The information for the ancestry of Elsie Leona (Daisy) Hickman, for example, is accurate in the birth and death dates for her and her husband, and the names of her siblings. But the birth dates of her siblings are not accurate, and Millard Fillmore Hickman is repeated as Phio Hickman. The name Phio is a typographical error for his nickname Phil. The family of Matson Riley, father of Hannah Riley Hickman, has similar issues. The fault is not necessarily that of the LDS, but those who supplied the data.
- (10) "Before the Bowman Boys, being the known American ancestry of Alan, John and Ruel Bowman" by Jane Belknap Bowman, Anundsen Publishing Company, Decorah, Iowa, 1976. It has detailed data on the Brohards and Bowmans and allied families like the Harrises. Considerable Morris Garfield Hickman family data is there.

- (15) Betty Engelska has information on the Samuel Tucker family.
- (16) Tom Townsend has an internet site detailing the parentage and descendants of Sotha Hickman including Elias Hickman. The Hickmans are currently (Oct 2001) indexed online at: <http://www.intcom.net/~tomt/pages/tlt/tlt.html>
- (17) "Marriages in Jackson County Ohio 1816-1866," two volumes compiled by Mary J. Hixon and Frances Hixon. The second volume is for 1866-1875 by the same two women. In the second volume co-author is called Frances Welch-Hixon..
- (18) E-mails from Jerry Smith, Larrabee and Snow researcher, who is preparing a book on the Larrabees, Snows, Spragues, and allied families.
- (19) Descendants of Arthur Hickman, including Sotha Hickman and sons Zachariah and Elias Hickman are on the worldwide web at <http://www.familytreemaker.com/users/h/o/o/Phil-Hooper/ODT5-0001.html> Elias Hickman's brother Zachariah (18 Dec 1778-18 Feb 1854) in 1799 married Mary Peck, per a volume on Harrison County Marriages. This fact is echoed at the website at source (16).
- (20) Some data about Nellie Ora Hickman came from a conversation with Mary K. Stevens of Columbus, Ohio.
- (21) Some William McKinley Hickman and some Willis family data were provided by Ann Willis Hinton and Phyllis Swigert. Information from Phyllis comes somewhat from Heber and Ruth [Maerker] Armstrong of Jackson County, OH.

(22) Information on Georgianna Jane Bartlett, adopted daughter of Elsie Leona Hickman and Charles Koehler was supplied by Howard and Cleyone Nichols. Howard is Georgianne's son. Charles Koehler's father was Henry Koehler, and he may be the Henry Kohler who married Mary Uhleman 17 Apr 1849 in Holmes County, Ohio. Charles' mother reportedly died in a house fire at Cambridge, Ohio, in late 1869 and Charles was raised in Columbus, Ohio by a sister.

(23) Robert Matson Hickman family Bible in my possession. I have here used the birth dates for Robert's family. In a few cases they are at odds with dates given in Jackson County Births.

(24) Extensive information for the family of Jesse Moore Banner, husband of Blanche Hickman, may be found, as for Jesse's father, John Elisha Banner, at a website devoted to the descendants of John Banner (Sr.) and Virginia (Jenny) Moore.

(25) The marriage of Matson Riley and Mary Dye, the parents of Hannah Riley Hickman, is mentioned at a website maintained by the late and talented Prof. John Charles Butler of the University of Houston. He also hosted a lively and on-going discussion site concerning the Dyes. Dr. Butler, who died October 24, 2001, was born October 31, 1941 in Port Clinton, Ohio. There is an obituary posted for him in the November 2001 archives at the latter website.

(26) I have a Matson Riley family tree online. Considerable research on the Rileys has been done by Leonard William Riley III of Oregon while on leave from the Peace Corps.

(27) Information on Virgil and Florence Magill and family was supplied by John D. Kille of Nevada.

(28) A photograph of the Robert Matson Hickman family contributed by Cleyone Nichols may be found at <http://members.aol.com/dovelion/hickman/hckprob.htm>. The identities of the adults and teenagers are certain. Hannah Riley Hickman is pictured at the left in the front row and Delilah Beatty Larrabee is at the far right. It is possible that the picture was taken in 1893, but I think the picture is from mid-April 1896, but if so the identities of the younger children are in question. For example, the child on Robert's lap is supposed to be Nora Hickman who died in 1896, and the baby on Jane's lap is supposed to be Howard (born 1904), but that is impossible timewise. If the picture was taken 1896, then the baby is probably Bobby, i.e., Robert Matson Hickman Jr., who was born 1896. The child at the left in the back row is supposed to be Elsie and the child at the far right is supposed to be Roma, but I believe the identities are reversed.

Notes:

Before the Civil War, West Virginia was part of Virginia. West Virginia was admitted to the union by Congress June 20, 1863. Thus such counties as Wood, Wirt, Jackson, Roane and Harrison once were in Virginia and later in West Virginia. I have not been particularly consistent in differentiating between the divided states.

Questionnaires from three of Zachariah Hickman's children (Robert, John, and Caroline) submitted to Willis Guy Tetrick of West Virginia University were copied by Addie Hickman. These questionnaires point to February 1813 (the 6th or 8th) for Zachariah's birth-date whereas the tombstone for Zachariah Hickman in Hickman Cemetery in Jackson Township, Jackson County, Ohio, extrapolates to April 6, 1812 (died March 6, 1866 aged 53 yrs 11 mos). The birth-date given by Caroline Hickman Leach for herself conflicts with those dates given by her brothers and also with the censuses and is in no way reconcilable. In that case, I took the date recorded in the 1900 census which was compatible with her tombstone.

One website devoted to the descendants of Christopher Nutter, <http://familytreemaker.genealogy.com/users/s/h/e/Franklin-D-Shepherd/GENE18-0005.html>, mentions Jeremiah/Gary Hickman and Bathsheba Nutter. In Wirt County WV, a Gary Hickman was married to a Bathsheba and he has been thought to have been a son of Elias Hickman and Charity Tucker. I rather think Gary or Jerry or Jeremiah belonged to Elias' brother, Zachariah Hickman and his wife Mary (Molly) Peck, daughter of Abner Peck of Harrison County, VA (Source 19). Gary has been doubtfully included here as a son of Elias and Charity.

Data about persons currently alive and their families have been limited for the sake of privacy. In most cases it can reasonably be presumed the person is dead, but the death date was unavailable.

If anyone has any further information about the people included here, we would appreciate hearing from you. We have tried to be as accurate as possible, but, as King Solomon wrote, "In the multitude of words, there is sin (or error)."
