Thomas Rice aka Thomas Rhys b. ca 1660 in Bristol, England d: 1711 "may have died in a shipwreck on his way back to England. His father Lord Lt. of Ireland, Steven Rice(Rhys)." per Randy Rice

Thomas Rice was an Englishman by birth, of Welsh extraction. He came to America in the later part of the 17th century. Where he spent the first part of his life is not known.

What is known is that he was an early adventurer into Virginia. In the latter part of his life he owned a small plantation in the lower part of what is now called Hanover Co., Virginia. He received this land from King George II by deed, dated April 29, 1693 for 1,200 acres of land in Hanover County on both sides of Cub Creek and Dirty Swamp, bounded by the lands of Col. Davis Meriwether, James Goodall and Richard Brooks.

Tragedy overtook Thomas Rice when he left his wife, with nine sons and three daughters, and went to England to receive a considerable estate which had been left to him. He did not return. The sailors reported that he had died at sea. It is supposed that he was assassinated. Nothing was ever heard regarding the inherited English estate. "His family was left destitute in a strange land... The family being left without an earthly father, were distressed, but they were, in the good providence of God, provided for".

Memoirs of the Reverend David Rice, published by Thomas T. Skillman, Lexington, Ky., 1824, p 420. [B.R. 55K 46, Rare Book div., Library of Congress, Washington, DC]
