

Ghould Hall

Ghould Hall, 54, a resident of Cream City, died Saturday morning in City hospital where he had been a patient for several days.

Mr. Hall was born in Olive Hill, Ky., and resided in Cream City 15 years. He was employed in the Irondale plant of the McLain Fire Brick Co., and was a member of the Hammondsville Church of God.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Grace Hall; six daughters, Mrs. Lillian Smolinsky of Hammondsville, Misses Joan Hall, Dorothy Hall, Jean Hall, Barbara Hall and Shirley Hall at home; four sons, Thomas Hall of Cream City, Cpl. Ghould Hall Jr., of Shreveport, La., James Hall and Wayne Hall at home; a brother, Harris Hall, and a half-brother, Virgil Hall of Olive Hill, and a sister, Mrs. Florence Moore, also of Olive Hill.

The body was moved Monday morning from the MacLean funeral home at Wellsville to the home of Thomas Hall, where services will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p. m. Burial will be in New Somerset cemetery.

Friends may call tonight and Tuesday at the Thomas Hall home.

Clipped By:

grhaney

Thu, Nov 2, 2017