

Jack W. Lykins Sr.

MANSFIELD: Jack W. Lykins, Sr., 74, of Mansfield, died Saturday, October 16, 2010 at MedCentral Mansfield.

Born May 20, 1936 in Olive Hill, Kentucky, he was the son of Isaha James and Susan G. (Caudle) Lykins. Jack worked at Flex in Galion as a welder making buses and was a member of Dean Road Free Will Baptist Church. He loved going to garage sales and flea markets. Jack played the guitar and sang in the "Country Squires" band, which later became known as the "Calvary Quartet" in Mansfield and neighboring cities. He loved country music, especially Elvis Presley.

He is survived by his friend and caregiver, Phyllis O'Hail; children, Jack (Janet) Lykins, Jr. of Mansfield, Karen (Tim) Davis of Lexington, Carol (Kevin) Drake, Diana Lykins, Ruthie Dailey, and Kenny Lykins, all of Mansfield; 14 grandchildren including special grandson, Jerry Dean; 19 great grandchildren; brother, William Dorsey Lykins; sisters, Garnet Maybry and Margery Winkleman; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Along with his parents; he was preceded in death by his son, Dorsey Lykins; sister, Jewel Burchett; and brother, Jerry Lykins.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday, October 27, 2010 at 10:30 a.m. at the Ontario Home of Wappner Funeral Directors, 100 S. Lexington-Springmill Rd., Mansfield, conducted by Rev. Clifford Earl Tackett. Friends may call one hour prior to the service from 9:30-10:30 a.m. at the funeral home. Burial will follow in Oak Grove Memorial Park.

Published in the News Journal on October 26, 2010

Submitted by: John Cooper - Jcooper1251 at aol.com